DUNCAN LEWIS PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

21 March 2011

Duncan Lewis were today granted permission to appeal to the Court of Appeal against decisions refusing to award costs to the Claimants in the High Court in a test case.

The Court of Appeal will reconsider the principles applicable to awarding costs in the Administrative Court.

For more information on this appeal, please read the Duncan Lewis article entitled: Court of Appeal to reconsider the principles applicable to awarding costs in the Administrative Court

Duncan Lewis gratefully acknowledges the assistance of Richard Wilson QC of 36 Bedford Row and Philip Nathan of Landmark Chambers who have agreed to take this case forward on a contingency fee basis.
