

Duncan Lewis raises fund for British Heart Foundation

Duncan Lewis and co Solicitors sent out a team of 23 people to cycle 54 miles from London to Brighton on June 20th 2010. The race started at Clapham Common and included Duncan Lewis' CEO, Shany Gupta and Practice director Adam Makepeace with trainee solicitor David Gregson crossing the finish line first.

Half of the team cycling were Asians; including 4 ladies who completed the ride with very respectable times. Duncan Lewis cyclists have managed to raise £3,796.25; with more donations still coming in are set to raise £4,000 for the British Heart Foundation.
